OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 6 May 1970

25X1

2. [REDACTED] Delivered to the office of Representative Michael Feighan (D., Ohio) a suggested reply to a constituent, [REDACTED] who had raised a number of questions concerning Agency activities in a letter to the Congressman. Miss Smith, in Feighan's office, who had called earlier concerning this matter, was out and I left a note for her to call me if needed.

3. [REDACTED] Talked to Ambassador Torbert, Acting Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations in State Department, about the crisis in the Foreign Relations Committee staff over issuing an unauthorized report. Torbert's impression is that this problem will seriously disrupt the Committee's work for some days to come and that there may be changes in the staff membership.
